Announcement: The registration of Industrial Training Course (2140301), criteria for internship period, and financial support for interns of academic year 2019

Due to the impact of the coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic, the following changes concerning the registration of Industrial Training Course (2140301) and criteria for internship have been implemented for interns of academic year 2019.

1. Students can register for the course in the first or second semester of academic year 2020. However, the students may begin the internship from summer semester of academic year 2019.
2. It is compulsory for students who need to graduate in academic year 2019 and receive the diploma to register for the course and complete the internship in summer semester of academic year 2019.
3. Students who wish to postpone the internship to summer semester of academic year 2020 will have to register for regular Industrial Training Course (2140301) of academic year 2020 (i.e., offered in summer semester of that academic year).
4. Students who are required to register for the course in summer semester of academic year 2019 and are unable to find an internship must contact career committee for assistance.
5. Students can collect internship hours through practical trainings or workshops arranged by the Faculty of Engineering or its departments, with an approval from the career committee.
6. Students will have to complete at least 280 hours of internship or pass the internship evaluation based on the program's outcomes, under an approval of the career committee.
7. Students who undergo an internship in regular format and register for the course in summer semester of academic year 2019 can request for financial support based on its specified criteria.
8. Internships that are occurred during the period of temporary workplace closure, as a result of COVID-19 pandemic, announced by Chulalongkorn University must be done in work-from-home format. This is to reduce the risk from the spread of the virus for the students and the community.

This announcement is applied for students with student ID 60xxxxxxx or before, under the situation of COVID-19 outbreaks only.

Note: Item 1-7 as referring to the announcement of the Faculty of Engineering, Chulalongkorn University, about the registration of Industrial Training Course (2100301), criteria for internship period, and financial support for interns of academic year 2019 on 29 April 2020.

Announced on 8 May 2020.
